FORMER JEFFERSON COUNTY, INDIANA, RESIDENT ARRESTED IN KENTUCKY FOR TAX EVASION

Dale A. Deuser, a former Jefferson County resident, was arrested Thursday, March 7, 2002, in Louisville for failing to file tax returns in Indiana over a three-year period and for using forged income tax returns to obtain funds from a lending institution.

Deuser is charged with four Class D Felonies (three counts of Tax Evasion, one count of Forgery) and one Class C Felony (Defrauding a Financial Institution).

The charges were filed by the Indiana Department of Revenue's Criminal Investigation Division with the Jefferson County Prosecuting Attorney as a result of an investigation into Deuser's financial practices.

Deuser is being held in Louisville, pending extradition to Indiana.
